

Shocking information in the murder of the social activist who closed the quarry-Abdul Samad MLA. Interview

Karur Jaganathan, a social activist, belongs to Paramathi Kuppam village in Karur district. He took action to close the stone quarry which was operating illegally without permission. He was killed by a truck a few days ago due to this hostility. K. Paramathi police arrested

3 people including the quarry owner Selvakumar on a case of murder.

In this situation, to investigate the murder and the reasons for it, to conduct a field investigation in the name of fact-finding committee, lawyer Mohan of the Indian Independence Party, Manappara MLA. A team consisting of 9 people including Abdulsamadu visited the relevant places and inspected them.

Abdulsamadu MLA said about this. Said:-

A social activist from Kalipalayam, Bukalur Taluk, Karur District, DMK. Jaganathan, the branch secretary, was killed by a quarry owner named Selvakumar, a member of the AIADMK.

The team inspected the relevant locations. The attack on Jagannathan was not the first attempt but it was the 3rd attempt where he was killed. In 2019 during the previous regime, quarry owner Selvakumar and his supporters attacked Jagannathan by sprinkling chilli powder on him. That too has been complained about.

In the second attack, Selvakumar and his men slashed Jagannathan's hands and feet with sickles. On the basis of that complaint, a case of attempted murder was registered against the concerned Selvakumar, but the case was later converted into a simple assault case.
